BLUE VALLEY BAPTIST CHURCH.

Rev. A. W. Lightsey, Pastor.
Services were well attended all day Sunday. In the morning we had an old fashioned covenant meeting. In the afternoon Rev. G. H. Ford of Sunrise Baptist Church delivered an excellent sermon. Brother Grear the boy preacher delivered a soul stirring sermon at night. His sermon was one of the best that we have had for quite awhile. There were several visitors. The Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. are both doing nicely. The E. B. Literary meets every Thursday evening. Mr. Lawson Parker of Chicago is visiting his sister, Mrs. M. H. White. He will leave Wednesday morning for Higginville, Mo., where he will visit his mother, Mrs. Eliza Parker.

AMERICAN WOODMEN, ATTENTION.

Friday night, December 24, at our regular meeting at 18th and Grove streets, we are asking every member of the Order to be present to hear a report of the year's work and at the same time we will all together give thanks unto God for having spared us individually and collectively as an Order to flourish and prosper twelve months more. All candidates are expected to be obligated Friday night, and please bring a basket with you. The arrangements will be completed, such as appointing of committees for local programs for the coming of Hon. C. M. White, Supreme Commander, here Friday night, January 14. Every member is expected to be present. This means you.
